

SPIRITUAL CONSTITUTION
and
FAITH PLEDGE
FAITH CONFESSION TABERNACLE

Whereas there is but one God manifest under the three, distinct titles of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, "Father" corresponding to the creative aspect, "Son" to the redemptive aspect, and "Holy Spirit" or "Ghost" to the empowering aspect, and

Whereas the Savior is called by the tri-partite name "Lord Jesus Christ", "Lord" corresponding to the Jehovah-fatherly title, "Jesus" to the filial title, and "Christ" to the Holy Ghost-anointed title, and

Whereas divine revelation is communicated in three diverse manners designated in the Greek tongue as the logos, the rhema, and the feema, "logos" signifying the static, outward revelation of divers doctrines and the printed page, "rhema" signifying those personal messages spoken to the believer's mind on an individual basis, and "feema" signifying the river of revelation gushing forth like a geyser from the belly of the faith-filled, sanctified, Spirit-anointed believer perfected in prayer, and

Whereas the Holy Bible is the imprinted Word of God just as Christ is the incarnate Word, and

Whereas the human person is a tri-unity of body, soul, and spirit, "body" being the physical "house of clay", "soul" being the mind, will, and emotions located in the head, and "spirit" being the real "you" situated in the belly region, and

Whereas the gifts of the Holy Ghost are three-fold, consisting of power gifts, revelation gifts, and utterance gifts, the fatherly "power gifts" being, the working of miracles, the gifts of healings, and supernatural faith, the filial "revelation gifts" being the word of wisdom, word of knowledge, and discerning of spirits, and the Holy-Ghost "utterance gifts" being prophecy, divers tongues and the interpretation thereof, and

Whereas the coming of Christ is three-fold, consisting of his birth in Bethlehem, his secret and glorious, pre-tribulational rapture of all true-blue believers, and his supernatural, post-tribulational coming to establish his millennial reign in Jerusalem, and

Whereas the salvation of the believer is a three-fold work consisting of 1) being reborned again, corresponding to the salvation of the spirit-man, 2) being baptized in the Holy Ghost and fire with the prime, physical evidence of talking in tongues, corresponding to soul-salvation from carnal reasoning by by-passing the carnal reasoning of the natural mind through the mind-suspending power of talking in unknown tongues as the Holy Ghost gives the utterance, and 3) laying hold of material salvation in the physical realm, corresponding to divine healing and health, divine prosperity, and full deliverance from physical death, and

Whereas the laying hold of material salvation takes place in the three distinct stages of 1) divine healing and health, 2) divine prosperity, and 3) physical transfiguration and rapture-escape from physical death through faith and a Xanadu consistency of feemarrhea, and

Whereas there are three distinct kinds of Christians, 1) the babes, 2) the carnal, and 3) the spiritual or "perfect", "babes" being those who are solely reborned again, "carnal" being those who are solely reborned again and Holy-Ghost baptized, and "spiritual" being those who are actively tapping into the feema and laying hold of physical/material, Xanadu salvation, and

Whereas the divinely-ordained method of supporting the ministry is three-fold, consisting of 1) tithes, 2) offerings, 3) and faith vows, "tithes" being the minimal financial return to God based on a tenth of the annual, gross income, "offerings" being those gifts, so beloved of God, given in excess thereof, and "faith vows" being those "out-on-a-limb" faith pledges sown in advance through loans and credit cards in order to reap a greater harvest, and

Whereas the financial blessing of God is three-fold, consisting of 1) the thirty-fold, 2) the sixty-fold, and 3) the hundred-fold return, and

Whereas there are three manners of associating with Satan, 1) oppression, 2) demonization, and 3) legionaire stronghold encampment, "oppression" being the mental, physical and spiritual attacks inherent to unsaved life which can also be unwittingly accepted by the believer, "demonization" being the entrance of demonic control into the mind, body, and/or spirit of satanically minded, true unbelievers and backslidden, carnal Christians, and "legionaire stronghold encampment" being the establishment of the central control of a demonic stronghold within the house of clay of either an unbeliever or an unwitting believer lacking awareness and proper teaching and which must be dealt with by special means revealed in the Word, and

Whereas the sins of the world are three-fold, consisting of 1) the lust of the flesh, and 2) the lust of the eyes, and 3) the pride of life, "lust of the flesh" being those evil stirrings in the physical members of a sexual, alcoholic, nicotine, pharmaceutical or musical nature which lead one away from God, "lust of the eyes" being the covetous, concupiscential longings toward the things of this world including the viewing of PG, R, X, XX, and XXX movies and the frequenting of certain flesh-oriented night-shows, and "pride of life" being the arrogant boastings of unsaved men as characterized in the flamboyant behavior of hollywood movie celebrities and nightclub entertainers, and

Whereas the Body of Christ is a three-fold entity consisting of 1) the bloodwashed throng, 2) the Bride, and 3) the Sons of God, the "bloodwashed throng" consisting of all the redeemed, saved by faith alone apart from any kind of outward action, the "Bride" consisting solely of the redeemed who are currently calling forth their spiritual blessings into physical manifestation by unleashing the power of God through their confession of the Word and by tapping into the power through the continual practice of speaking in other tongues, and the "Sons of God" consisting solely of those who have overcome "the last enemy which is death" by pressing through to an uninterrupted, 24-hour-a-day, Xanadu feema-flow issuing forth from their belly enabling them to take hold of their God-given right to escape death here and now through physical transfiguration and rapture, and

Whereas Jesus never fails, and

Whereas the Bible, God's inerrant and infallibly-dictated Word, clearly teaches any and all of the above to those whose spiritual eye-sight has been opened,

I as a bloodwashed member of Faith Confession Tabernacle, in order to escape the bondage of man-made denominationalism and religiosity into full unity in the Spirit, establish the kingdom on earth, and ensure spiritual, physical, and financial prosperity, provide for the defense and deliverance of others, promote the general edification of the Body, and ensure the blessings of Holy-Ghost liberty to myself and my fellow-believers, do hereby solemnly promise to stand by, uphold by tithes, offerings and faith vows, witness concerning, wage spiritual warfare on behalf of, and pursue the Holy-Ghost ordained teachings of this united Body of Christ until I am raptured from this vile world under the bondage of Satanic strongholds. I vow this to God in the presence of three witnesses under penalty of perjury in the Supreme Court of Heaven, on this the _____ day of the month of _____ of the year _____, with my wholly, undivided heart, sealing it with this, my signature,
